

HANA EVEREST

PROFILE

Gender : Female
Age : 28-35
Education : Bachelor's degree
Occupation : Friends of the Library Leader
Address : 123 Anywhere St., Vancouver, WA

“

"I didn't have training, but I wanted to help - I just wish someone had walked me through it first."

PERSONALITY

BIOGRAPHY

Hana is a dedicated Friends of the Library Leader with a heart for service and a passion for bringing people together. As a stay-at-home mom, she started organizing fundraisers and community gatherings for her church and local school PTA. She does not have any formal training, but she loves her local library and her city.

MOTIVATIONS

- Serve the community
- Create inclusive and enjoyable experiences
- Foster connection
- Support the local library

GOALS

- Successfully plan and execute events that are enjoyable and inclusive
- Engage community members and volunteers
- Collect useful feedback to improve future events
- Effectively communicate to potential attendees

FRUSTRATIONS

- Getting the word out to the community about cool new events
- Tracking RSVPs and staying organized with informal tools
- Juggling expectations with limited time and resources
- Making sure volunteers are reliable and excited about being involved

REASONS FOR USING THE SITE

- To get inspired by seeing what other organizers have done successfully - especially low-budget, high-impact ideas.
- To feel supported - knowing she is not alone and that the site was made for people like her in mind.
- To get new ideas for advertising events since COVID has changed how people interact with the library.
- To find ways to engage new, reliable volunteers and make sure they have fun.

TECHNOLOGY

Software

Social Media

Mobile Apps

SOFTWARE

